CECIL DYAL FOUND DEAD

The body of Cecil Dyal was found floating in the Suwannee River, just off the Camp Area about 10' 30" A.M. Tuesday, October 30th,.

Dyal was last seen in his Barracks at 7 P.M. Thursday, October 25th. Since that time he had been carried on the Company Records as A. W. O. L., for it was supposed that he had left camp to go home or elsewhere.

After his dissapearance Thursday night, no more was seen of Dyal until his body appeared floating in the river five days later.

The body was found some distance upstream from the steel and wood bridge, known as Cone's Bridge, across the Suwannee River and adjacent to the Camp Area. It was first noticed by Mr. Jim Wetherington, an inhabitant of this neighborhood who noticed the floating object as he rode across the bridge on horseback.

Mr. Wetherington talked to Mr. Scarborough, the Camp P-53 Blacksmith, and they returned to the bridge together. Using his boat to get to the body, Mr. Scarborough pushed it to the opposite side of the river from the camp. It was taken to the Columbia County bank of the river since it was nearer that side when found, than the Hamilton County side. At this point, the river is the dividing line between Columbia and Hamilton Counties. (Continued Page 3, Column 2)

"ABILITY"

It is certain that everyone has some idea about what "Ability" means and we all hear it quite often. The definition for ability is power or capacity to act; mental gift; skill; and talent.

Taking into consideration the various phases of the meaning of the word. First we notice that power and capacity may readily be comlied with by gaining authority, higher positions and by being larger or greater than the average man in mental or physical powers. This, of course gives you the power and authority to do, or to act.

Next we see "mental gift", it is certain that a man with a mental gift of a certain line or trade will have sufficient ability to go forward. This happens very often and should be considered very seriously in the selection of a profession or trade.

Skill, we will notice and find by test and trial rules the entire road to success in any profession. Skill may be attained by perseverance, patience, study and experience. Every person who wishes to enter a profession should first attain sufficient skill., then he or she can be quite assured of success, and as we all know success is the road we are traveling daily, and our advancement depends upon our SKILL.

Talent, is often considered as a gift, however it is not altogether a true interpretation of the word. Talent means unusual ability or skill which is developed by training. Men often have talents that are never used. Training is the only method to cultivate a talent and give it a chance to serve you.

Now to consider the word "Ability"; we see that it is power or capacity, mental gift, skill and talent. To train and cultivate the traits we must have sufficient Education and be a stronger man in your profession, Education is the Key to all Success.

EDUCATIONAL DEPARTMENT WILL MOVE.

At the first opportunity, the Educational Department and Library of this camp will move into the north end of the Recreation Hall. The lack of space has hampered the Educational Program here. In addition, it is impossible to keep the Library books, radio, mimeograph, typewriters, and other equipment from getting covered with dust in the tent where the Educational Department has been located for several months. During cold weather, work in the tent would necessarily be unpleasant. It is therefore gratifying to know that we shall soon be in more desirable quarters

Sheriff Davis, Chief Deputy Sheriff Horton, Chief of Police Hall, and Mayor Rountree, all of Lake City, came out immediately after the find to make investigation.

Later in the day Sheriff Davis and Justice of Peace Edwards returned to Camp with a Coroner's Jury to make a thorough investigation. However, they were unable to reach a verdict until the following day, after the body had been removed to the Wilson Funeral Home in Lake City.

Definite identification of Dyal's body was not accomplished until members of his family arrived in Lake City late Wednesday.

The exact manner in which Dyal met his death is not known. It is probable that these details will never be known. Doctors who examined the body say that the lungs contained no water, and this indicates that he did not drown.

However, the Coroner's Jury reported that he came to his death by drowning.

Dyal was from Merritt, Florida. He entered this Camp on October 6, 1934. He is survived by his father, a stepmother, and several brothers and sisters.

The Wilson Funeral Home in Lake City took charge of the body, and they will have charge of the funeral which will be held in Merritt, Florida.

What Were the Seven Wonders of The World?

As understood by the peoples of ancient days, the Seven Wonders of The World were: (1) the Pyramids of Egypt; (2) the Hanging Gardens of Babylon; (3) the Temple of Diana; at Ephesus in Asia Minor; (4) the Statue of Jupiter, in the Valley of Olympia, in Greece; (5) the Mausoleum at Halicarnassus, on the east side of the AEgean Sea, opposite Greece; (6) the Pharos, or lighthouse at Alexandria, Egypt; and (7) the Colossus of Rhodes, on the Island of Rhodes, in the Mediterranean Sea.

How Cannon are Now Made.

At one time cannon were made of one-piece casts or forgings but it was discovered that if the projectile was to attain a speed of 1,500 feet per second that these cannon would do more harm to the men handling it than the enemy. The pressure was to great that no forged tube would stand the strain.

The cannon of today are built by two methods: layers of steel with steel hoops shrunk on and the other method uses a steel tube which is wound with ribbon wire.

What is Balsa Wood?

Balsa, if well seasoned, is the lightest wood known. It is excellent for construction of model airplanes, and has found many other uses. It comes from the Balsa Tree, a South American tree. It belongs to the same family as the American Cottonwood.

Dear Shadow:

I am a young man in this camp that is often called a camp gigilo and to reveal my name is un-necessary. (Editor's note-"And How!) Last Friday in town I was feeling very chivalrous and I let my girlfriend have my overcoat as it was very cold. Now on going home this member of the fair sex took the coat with her! So I am appealing to you to tell me how to get it back without offending the girl.

Yours,
"Shivverous"

Dear "Shivverous":

In my wandering I have often heard of fellows in your predicament and it is very hard for me to tell you how to get your coat back without offending the girl. BUT if you will introduce "The Shadow" to the lady in question I am quite sure that after ten or twelve dates with her I am sure that I can drop enough hints about a young man losing a coat for her to think about the one of yours,

Yours,
"The Shadow"

Someone was seen in camp dressed in "hip" boots. They reminded us of a certain little friend of ours- All but for the lack of a mustache.

AN OLD ENROLLEE

Nathan Johnson, formerly an enrollee in this camp, is now in Texas. He was discharged from camp in July to accept work with the U.S. Forestry Service. Since leaving camp, he has worked in several southern states, including South Carolina and Texas.

THE GAME OF LIFE

You want to win in the game of life.
Are you willing to py the price for success?
How much discouragement can you stand?
How much bruising can you take?

How long can you hang on in the face of obstacles?
Have you the grit to do what others fail to do?
Have you the nerve to attempt things that the average man would never dream of tackling.

Can you keep your mind steadily on the single object you are pursuing, resisting all temptations to divide you attention?
Are you strong on the finish as well as quick at the start?
Success, then, if you are willing to pay the price--is yours for the taking.

WILL YOU:::::::

Remember the friends you made here in camp after you leave?

Think of the good times you had here as well as the bad ones?

Get back in the same old habits that you gave up when you entered this camp?

Be satisfied with everything that you find on returning home after a prolonged absence?

Try to do things right?

Try to keep ahead of the other fellow in the job as well as in the mess line?

Take advantage of the chances that this camp gives?

SCHEMES AND DREAMS

Every night I dream,
That I am back with you,
And each lonly day I scheme,
To make that dream come true.

But when the night falls again,
We are still apart,
But again in dreamland, dear.
I have you in my Heart

PERSONNEL RECORDS

The Educational Department in each CC C Camp is required to complete a personnel record blank for each man in camp. Some of the men are inclined to take the matter lightly and consider it unimportant. True, the routine of filling out this blank is not of much importance, but WHAT goes on that personnel record is important.

During the past week the personnel records of three groups of men were forwarded to District Headquarters. In one group were men who were discharged in the 3rd enrollment period and who DID NOT participate in the Educational Program. In another group were those who were discharged during the same period and who PARTICIPATED in the Educational Program, and in the third group were those who are still in camp, but who participated in the Educational Program during the 3rd enrollment period.

Eventually these records go to Washington. There they are kept for reference in the future.

THE SPORT OUTLOOK

BASKETBALL:

Letters have already begun to come in from other camps offering to play us in Basketball. The usual plan suggested is a home and home agreement. That is, a team coming here to play would be played later on their home court.

Before a Company 450 team can play a game there is a lot of work to be done. Our court needs some more work done on it. Then we need to practice a good bit before we will be ready to play.

Those interested had better get busy. A group will be asked to volunteer to work on the court Saturday. It is to your interest to help get this court in shape.

What uniforms we now have on hand will be supplemented with new ones that are being requisitioned.

VOLLEY BALL:

L. A. White erected posts and put up the volley ball net Thursday. The game is creating a lot of interest. Volley ball furnishes a very good way for our men to get a good workout.
